13. Miscellaneous

(a) Staff Report -

Leedom updated the Board on whether or not Trustees can attend the Long Wharf and Invesco client conferences if either is included in the RFP process for real estate funds. Board policy states there is a "quiet period" and no Trustee can be in contact with any candidates. If either firm is eliminated during the process, the Trustees can attend the conference. Cabral stated it is important for CCCERA to have representation at the conferences. Hally reported he will be attending both conferences.

Leedom reported Koehler may attend the P2F2 Conference in Seattle if Vickie Kaplan, the new Accounting Manager, is unable to attend.

Leedom also reported staff from the San Diego disaster recovery team will visit CCCERA on Thursday, September 15, 2011, to review the site as a possible disaster recovery site for San Diego retirement system.
